

The first of these is the fact that the government has a large surplus of funds which it is using to finance its operations. This surplus is not being used to pay for the interest on the national debt, but is being used to pay for the interest on the state debt. This is a very serious situation and it is one which the government must address as a matter of urgency.

The second of these is the fact that the government is spending more than it is receiving in revenue. This is a very serious situation and it is one which the government must address as a matter of urgency. The
 is receiving in revenue and it is using the surplus to finance its operations. This is a very serious situation and it is one which the
