

Figure 1. Location of the study area in the central part of the map.

The study area is a typical agricultural area in the central part of the map.

The study area is a typical agricultural area in the central part of the map.

The study area is a typical agricultural area in the central part of the map.

The study area is a typical agricultural area in the central part of the map.

The study area is a typical agricultural area in the central part of the map.

The study area is a typical agricultural area in the central part of the map.

The study area is a typical agricultural area in the central part of the map.